Just spent two nights at this hotel. Booked it based on the brand name Holiday Inn thinking it would be good. Disappointed that it was dated and needed some work. Lady at the check in area not too friendly and never cracked a smile. No name tag on any employees. Pool

- Text: We just returned from a week spent at the Holiday Inn Sunspree, and agree with many reviews that it is a great family resort, not high end but well worth the money spent. Overall the resort is very clean and well maintained, and the pool area was very nice. Beaches all seemed to be well kept and clean, although small & broken up, so it isn't a beach for taking long walks. The seaweed and rocky areas on the beach and island make for interesting locations for on site snorkelling. We had been to Jamaica twice before and stayed in Negril at a 4.5* which we loved, but it was nice to experience a different part of the island in Montego Bay; both areas of the island are very unique and fun in different ways. It was closer to Dunn's

They all left the experience thrilled and wanting to buy their own board . This outfit is professional and thorough and fun! Highly recommend !

Andy offered an incredible experience. My daughter and I took a lesson and he tailored our time in the waves to our ability. We left with a great memory of our time at the beach and the basics of surfing under our belt. Thanks for the fun!

Fantastic! Josh and Andy were a lot of fun and had my husband and I both riding waves and being from South Dakota, we had never even seen a surf board until we went to our lesson! It was fun and they are super laid-back and inviting! Totally recommend this to anyone for lessons or just plain old fun times! :)
